“ Sympathy to the family on your great loss. I remember “Flash” in 1949-1953 when he and my Dabbs Uncles would watch ball games on a Black and White TV, while listening to other games on the radio. The guys then would play a pick up game of baseball with a team from another town on Sunday afternoon. They loved all ball games! Last time I saw Harold was about seven years ago at the Senior Center. He had a good life and was married to a sweet lady, Emily Harris. Think of the good times when you miss them.

“ Sorry to hear about Harold’s passing. I met him many years ago when we played on the same softball team. He loved playing that game. A man full of life and was always ready for the “first pitch”. I’ll always remember his laugh and conversation. He was a joy to be around. RIP, Harold. You were an inspiration.
