“ My grandmother was a long time member of the Eastern star, when i was little and we would go to her house, we would play hide and go seek. I would try and hide under one of her beautiful gowns, covered in sequins. One day i got the notion in my head after watching Cinderella that she must be a queen and i must be a princess. Because surely no ordinary person would own or wear such lavish garments. For years she would get tickled when she would remind me of this.. I will miss my Nanny very much, but i knkw she lived a good life, now she is without pain and on monday we will say our final fair well to a lady who we all loved. Thank you Nanny for all the memories.. I will carry them forever
