“ I can remember going to high school with Angie and how friendly she was. She always had a smile for you when you didn't have one for yourself and always a kind word when you needed it. She had the most infectious laugh and I know she will be greatly missed by all

“ Sharing just one memory would be very hard. Aunt Pam said it very well when she hugged me Monday. The two of us girls had so many wonderful memories together. There isn't a room at either of our parents' or grandparents' houses where we didn't share memories. Angie was more than just a cousin to me. She was my closest, best friend for so many years. I cherish the countless times we had sleepovers, baked cakes together, painted ceramics, bugged Edna, taunted Robby, playing at the ballpark, and many other things little girls do together. Sending hugs and prayers to Uncle Junior, Aunt Pam, Matthew, Robby, Niki, and Pappa Parks.
