“ April, you were such a dear and loving friend from the time we started school up until now. I have loved you for over 25 years now and I can't believe you are gone! I will miss your beautiful face and your silly ways! You could always make people smile when they were having the worst of days! I am praying for your family and your children. Your memory will live on forever in them! And to the family I will continue to pray for healing of hearts, peace and understanding through this tragedy.

“ I remember the strong woman you were. The last conversation we had . I know life wasn't always easy but you always had a big heart and a smile on your face. Seeing you as a young child and as a grown woman I always knew your pain. Now go rest child. May the Lord be with you. I've always loved you and your family. To her family may God bring you peace like never before. May he guide you into a new path. I'm praying for you.
