“ To the Graham family and to those who were privileged to have known Duke:

I First met Duke in 1950, he was a good friend of my Father, William Clyde Wallis. He introduced me to his baby brother, Charles and we were married in 1955. I've enjoyed 58 years with Duke as my brother in law and a member of the wonderful Graham family. Duke has been like a brother to me and has always had unconditional love for my entire family. When my immediate family needed Duke, he was always ready to come on up to Va to lend his support, love and care. I was so blessed to have him in my life and because of him, I had three beautiful children, 5 grandchildren, 2 great granddaughters and a one of a kind husband! He will always be close to all of our hearts. May God bless the entire Graham family! With the deepest sympathy and love, Myrna Graham
