

BARBARA D. FELDER

August 23, 2024

Barbara D. Felder passed away on Friday, August 23, 2024. She was born November 25, 1969 to parents William “Bill” and Ruby Dawson. She was a successful, well-known, and well-loved pharmacist for most of her life, and played piano for Concord Baptist church before and after her retirement. She passed after a long illness and has been reunited with her parents and grandparents in heaven. She is survived by her daughter Jessica Felder, son Christopher Felder Jr, and sister Lynne Dawson, as well as a multitude of family friends and church family. Her wishes were not to have a traditional funeral but to hold a celebration of life
