“ It's been two weeks and I miss my Mom so much. I am heartbroken. The only thing that gives me some peace is knowing her and my Dad are both together again and not suffering. RIP

“ My memory is being close to the family and the times they visited us both at home and our river property, had lot of good times. Marlon was one of three nephews I had, I love them all, two are still living. Joy you were very young, one night at our river place, we were cooking out side after dark, you were sleepy. I carried you to the back of the lot to swing you to sleep, suddenly the power went off and I have never run faster to the light of the grill where the others were cooking. Marlon said I did it in a second. There were wild cats in those woods and I wasn't going to let you and me be their supper.
