“ To Ben's family and friends my prayers have been with you. The short period of time I knew Ben, he was respectful and a good man. I remember what I was doing the day he passed away and I received the call that he had passed. It was my birthday, the saddest birthday ever. Rest in peace Ben.

“ To the family and friends...I never had the privilege of meeting this young man, I am just a friend of a friend that thought a lot of him. but if she loved him he was good people. I've experienced the pain of losing both a father and a brother, but I won't say I know how you feel cause I don't, no one does. Everyone grieves at their own pace and in their own way so never let anyone tell you different. my prayer for Ben's family and friends is for peace and understanding. God Bless

“ I love you, brother Ben... You will be so missed. What a wonderful and fun loving person. Always living life to the fullest... We had SO many good times. Always my family and always in my heart, even though it's broken right now. I promise to never forget you!! What a wild ride it was, brother. Never forgotten and always loved. I pray for his family and friends. We all need it to get through the loss of such a young soul.

“ I never had the honor of meeting this young man. I'm a friend of a close friend, and if she loved him then he must have been good people. I have felt the pain of losing both my father and my brother and no I will not say "I know how you feel" cause I don't and no one else does either. Everyone feels and grieves differently.so to the children and brother of this man grieve in whatever way works for you and never let anyone tell you its wrong. To the rest of this family and friends know that peace and understanding is my prayer for you. God bless.

“ I met Ben when I bought his 1963 Chevy 2 nova. We instantly became friends. My ex wife and I baby sat Rachael from the time she was a new born. We had ups and downs as any true friends do. He was there for me when I lost my mom in 2008. We lost touch until last month when I lost my brother and he reached out to me. We talked just last week and had plans of working together by now.
