“ To our family whom we dearly Love and Care for, we would like to let you know that we will forever carry our memories of our lost Loved one in our hearts and minds forever. Just letting you all know that even though we have distance in miles between us, there is no distance in our hearts. To all of you we send you all our thoughts and prayers. And we want to say a special word on behalf of this very special person, you are already missed so much and loved even more than words can describe, we know this is not good-bye but, we will see you again. We miss you Bub! FOREVER JASON and Cynthia Mullins
