“ She was a great friend, even after retirement. She loved going to concerts, especially if it was Vince Gill and the secret she and I had. I loved her dearly and will miss our talks while I was driving back from Mississippi, sometimes nearly the whole trip. Bobbie my friend, you are with your beloved ones now ❤️

“ I worked with Bobbie at surgeons group office. She was always full of life always with a quick comment that was funny I missed her when she left. Her daughter had kittens that the mother had in the washing machine! She gave me two brother and sister. I still have them. She was kind and tender hearted I loved her kaye mathews
