“ Words cannot say how much I miss my Brother, Bruce! He was "uncle" on paper, brother in my heart and soul! We always said he, Johnny, Amy and I were brothers & sisters! He was a son to Mama & Daddy who raised him up. I'm thankful he is at home with his best friend, Jesus. Free from pain and suffering! Whole, healthy and beyond happy! Thank you to everyone who has said a prayer, visited, called and send food, flowers and cards. Your thoughtfulness will never be forgotten by us, his family. Rest in peace, sweet Bruce! We love & miss you!!

“ Your family has my deepest condolences. Bruce and I worked 3rd shift together for years. He would always come and check on me throughout the night. I always knew Bruce was just a phone call away. We spent countless hours laughing, eating, and talking about our lives and families. Bruce was like family to me. I miss my friend. Work is not the same for me knowing that he isn't there. I walked by his office this morning on the way to a meeting and couldn't help but shed a tear. You all are in my prayers daily. I know God does not make mistakes and it was time for Bruce to rest. I find solace KNOWING he is in the arms of Jesus.
