“ Pat and Stephen we are so very sorry to hear of Lynn's passing. We are praying for your family that God will comfort you in the days to come. Have missed seeing your family and words cannot describe how my heart breaks for you both and your family. Stephen remember the good times you had with your Dad and live with them in your mind. That so much helped me in the past. Hard to see God's plan for us during times like this, just know that family and friends are praying for you right now.
