

CAROLYN SALTER

July 10, 2022

Carolyn Salter, age 79, of Hueytown, passed away July 10, 2022, at her home in Hueytown.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Fred “Chick” Salter; parents, Lela and Coleman Hubbard; biological father, Fred Turman; and great-grandson, Fred Walker Humphries.

Survivors include her children, Cheryl Mason, Terry Salter (Amy), Tracey Morgan, and Jeff Salter (Amy); grandchildren, Holly Fortson (Stephen), Brittany Salter, Ashley Salter, Allison Salter (Dillan), Nikki Morgan, Cole Salter (Stephanie), and Nolan Salter; great-grandchildren, Huett, Carter, Jackson, Nick, Will, and Hallie; and sister, Marjorie Chapman.

Carolyn made her home in Hueytown with her husband of 53 years, Fred “Chick” Salter. For many years, she enjoyed traveling to Alabama football games, any activities involving her family, and worshipping at Pleasant Ridge Baptist Church, where she was involved in WMU. She was known to her family as “Nanny” and truly exemplified the heart of a servant throughout her life, always placing her family and others above herself.

The visitation will from 10:00 AM until 11:00 AM, Wednesday, July 13, 2022, at Peoples Chapel Funeral Home. The funeral service will be at 11:00 AM at the Funeral Home. Burial will follow at Salter Cemetery.

The family would like to thank Nanny's caregiver, Amalia Chacon, for her devoted care.
