

CHARLENE DISMUKES

February 15, 2026

Charlene Dismukes went to her heavenly home on February 15th, 2026. Charlene was born on August 18th, 1929 in Trenton, Georgia. She was a long-time member of Gum Springs Baptist Church in Ashville, Alabama. She loved the Lord and was a mighty prayer warrior.

Charlene loved her family and was cherished deeply by them all. Charlene is preceded in death by her mother and father, Arlie and Edna Howington, her husband, Clayton Dismukes, her children, Nancy Collier, Joe Dismukes, and Clifford Dismukes, her sisters, Hazel Watts and Nellie Balcomb. Charlene is survived by her son-in-law, Frank Collier, grandson, Michael Collier (Ashley), granddaughter, Pam Walden (Johnny), great grandchildren, Jake Collier, Blake Collier, Luke Walden, and Alyssa Walden, her sister, Jean Strickland and many nieces and nephews.

The family wants to thank Frank Collier for taking such good care of Charlene before and during her stay at Self Skilled Nursing. The family would also like to thank the staff at Self Skilled Nursing for the care they provided.

Graveside service is Thursday, February 19th at 2:30 PM. It will be held at Old Harmony Cemetery in Rainbow City, Alabama.

Tribute Wall

SH

“ Thoughts and prayers to all of the family of Charlene Dismukes. I met Mrs. Dismukes when I visited her previous roommate, Lucille Hosmer. Ms. Dismukes was such a sweet and friendly lady. Always had a smile on her face. Prayers for God's Comfort and Peace to all of you. Sharron Howell, Concord Highland Baptist Church, Hueytown, AL

Sharron Howell - February 26 at 04:32 PM

VG

“ Veronica Grant lit a candle in memory of
CHARLENE DISMUKES

Veronica Grant - February 18 at 08:47 AM