

CHARLENE HAYNES

February 7, 1919 - October 11, 2016

Charlene Haynes, 97, died peacefully on October 11, 2016. She was born February 7, 1919, in Lamar County. She was the daughter of John and Flossie Walden. She was an active member at Wylam Baptist Church until it closed. She then joined Pleasant Grove First Baptist Church. She enjoyed participating in the senior choir (Amazing Grays) and numerous areas of ministry there. She loved to travel, experience new things, and meet new people. She was fondly known as “Memaw” to people of all ages. Charlene was preceded in death by her husband William Elbert Haynes, and her grandson, Mike Haynes. She is survived by four sons Jack Haynes, Daniel Haynes (Carol), John Haynes (Peggy), Ronnie Haynes (Dee); one daughter Becky Coley (Jr.); 7 grandchildren; 14 great grandchildren; sisters Quanita Duckworth (Rev. Luther), and Jean McBee; and brother Rev. James Walden (Vina). The family will receive visitors from 9:30 AM until 11:00 AM, Friday, October 14, 2016, at Peoples Chapel Funeral Home, Hueytown, AL. The funeral service will be at 11:00 at the Funeral Home, with Dr. Brady Haynes and Rev. Edward Puckett officiating. Burial will follow at Highland Memorial Gardens. In lieu of flowers the family requests donations be made to Pleasant Grove First Baptist, Amazing Grays Fund.

“ Charlene was a very special friend. She always sat in the pew just in front of us while she was in Pleasant Grove! You could never get away with doing something for her. I have several dish cloths which she either knitted or crocheted. She was a precious lady. We will miss her! ”
