

CHARLES PHILLIP "CHUCK" BRADLEY

August 18, 1944 - August 18, 2010

BRADLEY, CHARLES PHILLIP "CHUCK", age 66, of Livonia, Michigan, died August 18, 2010. Chuck was a Staff Sergeant in the Air Force. He was a Professional Musician, a member of the American Federation of Musicians, a Transportation Technician at Daewoo Motor America, and a Property Engineer at Trinity Park. Chuck was known for his love of music, family and service to others. He was preceded in death by his brothers, John M. Bradley and Jerome C. Bradley. Survivors include sons, Christopher Bradley and Jason Bradley; daughters, Lisa Glock, Brianna Bradley and Calla Bradley; three grandchildren; brothers, Danny F. (Carolyn) Bradley and Joe M. (Monique) Bradley; sisters, Cecilia (Jim) George, Diane (John) Trapolino and Teresa Bradley. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorials be made to the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society Donor Services, PO Box 4072, Pittsfield, MA 01202. A Service of Christian Burial will be held Friday, August 20, 2010 at 12:30 p.m. at Peoples Chapel Funeral Home, with burial in Alabama National Cemetery, Montevallo, AL. Father Henry McDaid officiating. Visitation will be held Friday from 11:30-12:30 p.m. at the funeral home. Peoples Funeral Home Directing.

Tribute Wall

DM

“ I had not seen Chuck since 1986, as I moved out of state. When I came back he had moved to Mich. I worked with Chuck at Hogan's Hideaway for several years and thought the world of him, so much fun and so full of life, how could anyone not love him?
My deepest sympathy to all who loved him, especially his family.

Donna Morrow - August 20, 2010 at 04:13 PM