“ My name is Rosemary Henderson Rocky and I work together at Capital City club for many many years. I never met Rocky father but he always talk about what a great husband and a great father he was. And rocket always talked about how much he loved to his father and love to his mother and his brother his nieces and nephews and the rest of his family so deeply. But one thing about life is that we don't come to live forever but just think about the good times just think about the good times and I'm sure he made it to a place called heaven my love. Remember Rocky Ms Rosemary from Montgomery Alabama will always love you from the bottom of my heart.
