“ My heart is just broken that our Charlie Brown Downtown Hueytown has passed.His phone conversations were always so uplifting and a joy,catching up on family and our grandbabies.The weeks in the summer when i was young that I spent with Uncle Albert and Aunt Selma ,Charles,Margaret,Dale,Jimmy were the highlight of a young girls life! First time I saw the ocean they took me to Panama City.Charles always seemed more like my brother than my cousin.He always made you laugh and feel good about yourself no matter what! I will miss him and never forget the kindness he always showed. I am sure he was proud of the Tide last night and we would of talked about the game today.Heaven became even a better place when Charles walked in. I love you all and will talk to you soon, So sorry I could not be there. You are in my thoughts and prayers.Hang on to the memories and smile thats what Charles would want you to do! Love, Deb
