

CHARLES LEE TURNER

September 4, 2025

Charles Lee Turner, age 91, of Hueytown, Alabama, passed away September 4, 2025, at his home in Hueytown, Alabama. Charles was preceded in death by his parents, Robert James Turner and Frances Matilda Turner; brother, Robert Turner, Jr.; and sisters, Frances McNabb and Nellie Kollfrath.

Survivors include his wife, Sue D. Turner; son, Alan Lee Turner; and a host of other family and friends.

Charles was a member of Pleasant Ridge Baptist Church for over sixty years. He loved serving in the Jesus Pantry so he could help families in need. He diligently kept the financial records for many years.

One of the highlights of his life was a mission trip to Nicaragua. He enjoyed serving the people and sharing God's love. He always wanted to go back, but his health prevented another trip.

Charles proudly served in the United States Air Force for six years and then twenty years in the Air Force Guard Reserve. One of his greatest delights was flying jets across the skies.

Charles attended Jefferson State Community College where he earned a degree in electrical design. Later he went to UAB to add additional courses to upgrade his skills. He worked for many years, going to different states to do electrical design contracts on various projects.

The visitation will be Tuesday, September 9, 2025 from 9:30 until 11:00AM at Peoples Chapel Funeral Home. The funeral will be at 11:00AM at the funeral home, with Ray glover officiating. The burial will follow at Pleasant Ridge Baptist Church Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorials be sent to Pleasant Ridge Baptist Church.

Pallbearers: David Amerson, Steve Furgeson, Robert Gilliland, Billy Hill, Dave Stringfellow, and Gene Sykes.
