“ Sweet Mr. League, I will never forget helping y'all pack the house to move you and Ms. Glenda to Huntsville. I was up on the ladder, cleaning out the cabinets and you came in to the kitchen looking for a bowl. I asked you what you needed and you said “I sure would like some cherries jubilee ice cream”. Done. I made you a huge bowl and when you asked for 2nds, I made that happen too! We both got into trouble because you were not supposed to be eating that much sugar, but I think we both chuckled when I said “hey, this dude has crossed the 70 yard line of life. If he wants Cherries Jubilee ice cream, he can have it” #rebelsforicecream #youweretooocute #RIP #Love

“ I remember how good looking my brother Junior was when he gave me away at my wedding...because our Daddy wouldn't do it. He was tall, he was handsome, and he was always so kind to our parents. Our Daddy was never in need of a car because Junior would always bring him one. I always admired his wife, Glenda - she was so pretty and was always so nice. They were a beautiful couple, and they raised very well mannered children. I'm glad that he has gone to a better place. I will always remember my #1 Big Brother. Love Always, Helen

He loved you so much, Aunt Helen. I remember him walking you down the aisle on your wedding day. He was so happy and proud to do it. He knew you were happy and marrying the man you loved.
