“ One of the greatest women I have been blessed to know. She was my second mother while growing up and took care of me, watched out after us and was as just as firm and loving as my own mother. She put up with us tearing up her house and yard, and truly cared for all of us. She even beat my butt at times when I needed it. I am so sorry that I didn't get to see her last year when I stopped by in Hueytown. Amy told me that she was out volunteering and that is just so typical for Charlotte.

Greg and Amy: My condolences to you both. I wish I could be there, but I just wanted to remind you (because I don't have to tell you) that your mother meant a heckuva lot to me. She was a great woman and mother, and I am blessed to have known her. God bless Charlotte! She's with Him now.
