“ Hey brother I still can't believe this has happened. I remember all the laughs, fun times and of course the food you cooked for us every so often. You will truly be missed my friend. I remember the last shift I worked with you before I got moved to station 18 and you told me to keep up the good work and keep training that I was going to be a good firefighter. I will now and forever remember that last talk. It meant so much to me. This just breaks my heart knowing you are not here any more. I've cried many tears since I've found out. But I know you would want us some how to keep on pushing so that's what I'm going to try to do. But the Family is in my prayers. I will miss you Chicks. Love you my brother. RIP Chris Hicks (Chicks).
