“ I love you my sweet cousin and I'm going to miss you like crazy 😭💔 I miss talking to you like we used to just about everyday if not every other day. When I needed that one person to have to talk to you was that person my extremely gorgeous cousin. I'll never forget you nor forget your voice or your sweet words that always comforted me when I had to talk to somebody about my bad or week. You was that person in my life that always listened and gave me your honest opinion. You will be strongly missed and loved forever. Love Ginger Stone💔
