

CONSTANCE WILLINGHAM LITTLE

September 23, 1927 - December 22, 2009

LITTLE, CONSTANCE WILLINGHAM, passed away peacefully at her home in Hueytown, AL on December 22, 2009. She was born on September 23, 1927 to Augustus and Agnes Reach Kornegay in West Blocton, AL. She moved to Bessemer, AL at an early age and resided there until 1998, when she moved to Hueytown, AL. She was preceded in death by her husbands, Harold Lloyd Willingham in 1948 and James R. Little in 1975; her grandson, Barron Willingham; two brothers and two sisters. She is survived by her son, Patrick Willingham (Kim), Orange Beach, AL; her daughter, Mary Stringfellow (Dave), Hueytown, AL. She is also survived by her grandsons, James R. "Chip" Willingham (Vonda), Brian Stringfellow (Tammy), Brad Stringfellow (Misty), Matt Stringfellow (Carlye), Thomas Rankin, and Trent Rankin; her granddaughter, Hillary Willingham; her great-grandchildren, Joshua, Justin, Lamana, and Riley Kate Stringfellow, who were the joy in her life; and her sister, Edna Chapman, Hoover, AL. She was a member of Second Baptist Church, Bessemer and a recent member of the Lydia Sunday School Class at Pleasant Ridge Baptist, Hueytown. She was employed in the food service industry, most notably with Liggett Lane. Services will be held at Peoples Chapel in Hueytown on December 26th at 10:30 AM. Visitation will precede the service beginning at 9:30 - 10:30 AM. Burial will be in Cedar Hill Cemetery. Dr. Rick Patrick and Rev. Monte Mills will preside over the service. The family wishes to express their deep appreciation to Dr. Ira Gore, Dr. John Glover, Dr. Fred Dumas, and all the staff at the Bruno Cancer Center for the kindness and care they showed to her for over eleven years. We also express appreciation to Hope Hospice who so lovingly guided us through these final days.
