

CRAIG LOLLAR

November 25, 1971 - May 29, 2023

Craig Lollar was called to be with the lord on Monday, May 29th, 2023. Craig was a lifelong resident of Hueytown, Alabama and was a graduate of Hueytown High School as well as the University of Alabama. He worked at NCP and Lucky & Company. Craig had a servant's heart and loved children, both which led him to be a Preschool church Director and Sunday school teacher. Craig was also an avid fan of anything related to the University of Alabama's athletic program, especially the Crimson Tide Football team. Craig loved all things Disney and travel.

He was preceded in death by his parents Joe and Virginia Lollar. Craig is survived by his aunt Gloria Deitz (Dee) and Doris Jones; along with an extended family of cousins, nieces and nephews, as well as a large network of friends.

The visitation will be Friday, June 2nd, 2023 from 10:00 A.M. to 11:00 A. M at North Highlands Baptist Church. The funeral service will be at 11:00 A.M at the church, with Bro. Michael Wallace officiating. The burial will follow the service at Valley Creek Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to the University of Alabama's Athletic program.
