

DANNY EDWARD GLOVER

March 10, 2020

On March 10, 2020, Danny Edward Glover “Brother Danny” began his eternity in the presence of the Lord. He lived his earthly life and each of his earthly roles--which included mason, minister, and broncobuster, to name a few--with great courage, compassion, and faith. Since becoming an ordained minister in 1987, he was instrumental in growing churches and leading many to Christ. He was once recognized as ‘Pastor of the Year’ by Samford University and regularly recognized by his cowboy hat, boots, and laughter within the community. He is survived and celebrated by his mother, Lilian Furner, his three children, two grandchildren, five sisters, and younger brother—along with a multitude of nieces, nephews, friends, and loved ones. While he is rejoicing in heaven with those who went before him--including his father, Daniel Glover—he will be greatly missed by those who can’t wait to see him again. All who wish to join in celebrating his life are invited to Hepzibah Baptist Church this Saturday, March 14th, 2020. Visitation will start at 10:00 am, funeral at 11 am and burial to follow at Valhalla Cemetery.

“ Danny was the best big brother a sister could possibly have. I always looked up to him. As a young little girl I was a little afraid of him. The older we got, the more our brother-sister relationship grew and strengthened. I know in time I will rejoice in his homecoming but I am only human and my heart is hurting and tears our pour with greif. It's hard to imagine life without my dear brother.
