“ No words are adequate to tell you how much our hearts hurt for you. We know that David is whole and healed and fine in the arms of Jesus. Our tears are for the loved ones left behind, where we know a void will be left and your lives are forever changed by the loss of such a great man. Our prayers and support will continue in the weeks and months to follow as you start your healing process and figuring out how to live life without David. We love you all so much and are grateful for your friendship and love over the years. He will be missed, but live on through all the wonderful memories and stories. Love to you all!

“ David was the ring bearer at our wedding 20 years ago. We looked at those pictures and thought about how no one knows how long we will have on this earth. The testimony of this man and his family has spoken of the faithfulness of God and truly blessed us. Our prayers are with you!
