“ Wade was one of the kindest, most generous human beings I have ever met. His whole family are pure genuine people and do not deserve to have to suffer this tragedy. He would give the shirt off his back for a stranger in need and he served the Lord while he was with us here on earth. Wade was a man of excellence. He will be greatly missed! Rest In Peace sweet friend. Love, David and Michelle Eaton

“ My name is Carol Stanley his wife's aunt, she used to live with when she was a teenager I first met David at church that we all went to, then he came to our house to see my niece which now is his wife Regina. He would come to pick her up to take her with him to go to a youth group meeting that he went to, also he would come to our house to see her, he would always have her back at the time that he would say. or other times he would come and pick her up to take her to church he was the nicest person that I have ever met he was a very polite young gentleman he was around 17 or 18 at the time this was before he went into service, he used to write Regina a lot of love letters I do remember that well and then when he got out of service I guess that's when they connected at that time she had already left and moved on, but he was always a very nice person and I had no problems with David he was very well liked by us and I know loved by many, through the years I have never heard anything bad spoken about David he was always and I stress always a very polite man. He is going to be well missed.
