

DOLORES ETHERIDGE PICKENS

March 31, 2014

Dolores "Lokey" Pickens, 83, of Hueytown, Alabama, passed away March 31, 2014 at her home after a long illness. Dolores was preceded in death by her parents, Hill and Lonie Ethridge; and sisters, Marie King, and Betty Jo Shoemaker. Dolores and her husband are long standing members of Industrial City Baptist Church. She is survived by her husband, William "Bill" Pickens; sons, Steve Pickens (Debra), Scott Pickens (Jenny); and daughter Beth Garland (Buddy); grandchildren, Michael Pickens (Tammy), Kimberly Ray (Jon), Chris Pickens, Cori Pickens, Hayden Garland, and Kelley Garland; 4 great grandchildren; sister, Anna Louise "Leez" Dickey; and numerous nieces and nephews. Visitation will be on Thursday, April 3, 2014 from 10:00 AM until 11:00 AM, at Peoples Chapel Funeral Home. The funeral service will be at 11:00 AM at the Funeral Home, with Glenn Edmonds and James Parker officiating. A private family burial will be at Elmwood Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

RB

“Lokey was a friend of my mothers, Josephine Brown, who passed away in 2009. I used to call my mother every day and most days, she mentioned Lokey Pickens, whom she thought the world of. My sincere condolences to Mrs Pickens' entire family.

Ron Brown - April 23, 2014 at 11:46 PM