“ After Don enrolled at the University of Alabama, someone stole his only jacket. Being from New Orleans, he didn't have an extra jacket. I gave him a jacket I wasn't wearing and we became close friends for 36 years. I taught him how to lift weights at the University. He overhauled my Dad's old Schwinn Bike. Whenever one of us moved, the other helped with the moving. We use to enjoy a Mexican Dinner every week. We were graduate students together.

“ Don and I became friends in Tuscaloosa through a local social organization during the 1980s. When I moved to Birmingham in the 1990's I reconnected with him and he introduced me to the world of cycling.

I would take frequent bike rides through Homewood and Mountain Brook with him until I moved out to Shelby county and we lost touch. Don was a nice guy and he answered the right call with his mental health career.

He will be missed. May God bless his family and loved ones as they mourn his loss.

“ I remember at his wedding reception, how he was so dedicated to his clients, he invited them to come as a reward for their good behavior. One of them had a tantrum there, but he handled everything professionally and lovingly to get them calm.
