“ Mr. Dabbs was a friend that you could always count on. You could call and he would always answer. He was a believer in Jesus Christ and his interactions mirrored his walk with Christ. I believe The Lord called Mr. Dabbs home to be with Him; because Mr. Dabbs was ready (Sadly our hearts were not). May my dearest friend Donald Dabbs Rest in The Peace of Jesus Christ. Praying blessings of comfort, peace, and understanding for your dear family and friends. Blessings,

“ I knew Don, as a young man working for my “Uncle Mutt” at the Shell SS on 19th & 9th Avenue in Bessemer. We sorta looked at him as family. He used to hunt with my daddy & Uncle Mutt in South Alabama. He was a very respected, fine young fine. I am sure he, my daddy and uncle Mutt will be laughing and discussing old times in heaven.
