“ Dear Family,
My heart is so heavy. I just loved Donna, she always was having a good time and smiling. Kelly as you are the one that I am closest to I am sorry that your children will never get to know what a wonderful grandmother they had. I just saw her at the band concert this fall my hope and prayers were for a better ending. My hope and prayers now are with ALL of you. I have just had foot surgery so I cannot be with you at this time.

“ I am sending prayers and thoughts to the family. I hurt over this loss of Donna. We had so much fun growing up together. So many memories are running through my mind now. Donna was a special person and special friend to me. I cannot remember a time that she was not laughing or had a smile on her face. As I said she was a special person. Donna, I love you and always will!!
