“ I can only think of her as Granny since that was what she asked me to call her. The sweetest person to ever take a breath on this earth. I will continue to miss talking with her and can't wait to see her again in Heaven. I love you Granny and miss you XOXO

“ Family and Friends, my granny was a very funny woman. She loved to tell stories that made you laugh and she enjoyed your stories. She had a wonderful laugh and a sweet voice. So one day, Her son my father was trying to convince his mother to sleep in our sun room at our home in Orange City, FL. Her, Suzzanne and the kids had come down for a visit that summer. She must have seen a spider at the house that day. She was affraid of spiders. Our sun room is where we kept a lot of our books. You could say like a small library. My father was convining her to sleep in the day bed in the sun room. She said she was afraid of spiders. So my father said just as plan as ever in a deep voice. "Mother Spiders can't read." We all looked at him and laughed! I can't remember now if she ended up sleeping up stairs or in the sun room. But I will never forget that funny story. Granny I miss your smile and the way you saw the world.

*Love,
Lauren*
