

DOUGLAS MAULDIN VINES JR.

August 11, 2018

Douglas Mauldin Vines Jr. went home to be with the Lord on August 11, 2018 after a long battle with cancer. He was born on September 2, 1939 and is preceded in death by his parents Mauldin and Virginia Ruth Vines. Doug is survived by his loving wife of 34 years, Joan Payne Vines, son Dewayne Richardson, daughter Cheryl White (Chuck), Grandchildren, Bradley White, Jessica Lynn (Aaron), Ryan Richardson (Amanda), Jordan Awtry, Jackson Richardson, Raya Richardson, great grandchildren, Dylan White, Zoey White, Daxton Lynn, Harlie Lynn, and Liam Richardson. Brothers, Allen Vines (Vada), Glenn Vines (Diane), Curtis Vines, George Vines (Alice) sisters, Connie Snow (Mike), Linda Jane Vines and a host of nieces and nephews and friends along with his favorite Mother-in-law, Vernell Payne. Doug was retired from Vines Package Store in Alliance, a family business that he and his brother operated for 47 years. He served his country in the United States Air Force. Everyone that knew him loved Doug and he loved his family. His greatest joy was watching his grandchildren and great grandchildren play and enjoy life. Doug loved the outdoors, fishing and hunting and spending time with his buddies and especially a long time friend and gardening buddy, Robert McCarty. Doug has been a huge influence to his grandchildren and taught them about gardening and being a kind and giving person to others. He will be greatly missed. There will be a memorial service at The Bible Comes to Life Church in Adger, Alabama Thursday, August 16, 2018 at 6:00 P.M., with a private burial. Pastors Phillip Hill and Crantford Hicks will officiate.

“ My daddy and mother were good friends with Doug's parents. They all lived in Fairhope during WWII and along with some other men from Alliance, the men worked at the Mobile shipyard. Daddy was also friends with Doug's uncles, Stonewall and Hugh Blair. I have many connections to this family and am so sorry for your loss. Joy Salter Swigart.
