“ Grandmother you will always be with me in a special place in my heart that no one can take away! We helped each other through thick and thin and you were the only one that loved me for me and helped me through sickness and homelessness and the death of my child,etc i will always cherish our special bond we had together that no one else had,it meant the world to me to have someone that wasnt selfish and wanted to love and help! Thank you so much,till we meet again LOVE YOU KERRY MORRIS
