

EDWARD CHESTER STAFFORD

July 24, 2017

Edward Chester Stafford, 78, of Adger, passed away July 24, 2017, after a lengthy battle with COPD.

In life he was an avid motorsports fan, having raced both flat-track motorcycles and late-model stock cars in his youth. He was the owner and operator of Ed Stafford Trucking and a former brick mason. He was happiest on the banks of his beloved Warrior River.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Edward Wilroy Stafford and Agnes Meriam Cain, sister Dorothy Nell Springer, and brother Thomas H. Stafford. Survivors include his son Luke Stafford and Luke's mother Kathy Glass; his daughter Laurie Montgomery and Laurie's mother Fran Boreland; brother-in-law Clarence Springer; nephews Steven, Scott, and Stuart Springer, Jon McGee, Kyle Jordan and Cody Hall; nieces Candice Mims, Courtney Seale, Jessica Melton, Allyson Harrison and Ashley Colburn; and a host of beloved family and friends.

Pallbearers are Steven Springer, Scott Springer, Stuart Springer, Jon McGee, Kyle Jordan and Michael Tuggle. Honorary Pallbearers are David Frazier, Pat Sewell and Chester Honeycutt.

The visitation will be Thursday from 5:00 PM until 7:00 PM, at Peoples Chapel Funeral Home. Visitation will also be on Friday, July 28, 2017, from 12:30 PM until 1:15 PM. A graveside service will be held at 2:30 PM at Elmwood Cemetery, with Rev. Adam Homan officiating.

In lieu of flowers donations can be made to the UAB Center for Palliative and

Supportive Care or the UAB Division of Pulmonary, Allergy and Critical Care
Medicine. Flowers are also welcome.

“ Luke and family: Sorry to hear of Edward's passing. He lived a full life and had some good tales to tell. In that respect, he was truly a son of Uncle Bill.
