

ELEANOR OLIVIA "TINY" McKAY

November 15, 2015

Eleanor Olivia "Tiny" McKay, 6, passed away November 15, 2015. Our sweet angel is now walking down the yellow brick road. Our prayers were answered, Eleanor received her healing. Her strength inspired all who knew her story. She did not lose her battle, she went back home to the One who loves her most. Eleanor is survived by her parents Chris and Tanya McKay; sister Cora McKay; grandparents Mark and Susan McKay, Billy and Elisa Sproule, and Tom Cook; and a host of other loving family and friends. The visitation will be from 5:30 PM until 7:30 PM, Tuesday, at North Highlands Baptist Church. The funeral service will be Wednesday, November 18, 2015, at 11:00 AM, at the North Highlands Baptist Church, with Bro. Michael Wallace officiating. Burial will follow at Pleasant Ridge Cemetery.

“ Your little girl is a precious angel now. I feel blessed to have known her through my grandson from Kindergarten at Hueytown Elementary and through soccer at Hueytown Soccer Club. I look back at the pictures in the binder that Mrs. Simpson made and gave the parents and smile at her beautiful face. She is in a better place and will be sorely missed God Bless you and your family.

“ I did not know Eleanor personally, only through the prayer list of Westwood Baptist Church, Forestdale, AL. But Eleanor touched my heart and she was always in my prayers. She does now reside with the one who loves her most and for all eternity. May He surround you with His peace and comfort your hearts until you see your Eleanor again. Psalm 91 Darlene Robbins

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you guys.
1 Thessalonian 4 16-17: for the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we shall always be with the Lord.

“ My heart is breaking for this family left behind. I prayed daily for that miracle for precious Eleanor to be healed. Obviously God needed her, know that she is healed & enjoying the streets of gold! And I hope God wraps his arms around each one of you lean on him that's what will see you through these darkest hours. You will all be reunited one day in Heaven and have that everlasting life. I truly think your precious Angel was an inspiration to many people's lives. RIP Tiny!!

“ Tanya & Chris,
I am so sorry for the loss of your precious little girl! I just want you both to know I am here for you if you ever need me. God has big plans for you two & I hope Eleanor's story touched a lot of people. She was a very special little girl & I am happy she is in Heaven with Jesus & one day we all will be with him where we won't have to go through any more heartache like this. Love you both & prayers for your family!

“ My family has been thinking and praying for Eleanor and all of you for a while. Right now the pain is fresh and the cut is deep. Although it will never go completely away, just knowing that she is healed now will really help. We lost a grandchild almost two years ago and we knew in our hearts that he would not suffer anymore. Maybe Eleanor can keep our little Walker company until we arrive to join them. Love and prayers, The Gwin-Wyatt family

“ Oh my heart goes out to your family. I am so sorry that you are going through this grievous time. Though the pain of your loss can seem unbearable, take courage, you are not left alone. Psalms 46:1 says, God is our refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress. And remember that God hates it when one of His children dies (Matthew 18:14, 1 Corinthians 15:26). So He makes Himself available in order to comfort us. In fact, 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4 refers to Him as the "God of all comfort". Pray to Him for strength to get through this most difficult time. Weep to Him when the words just won't come out. He will really help you (Isaiah 41:10) because He cares for you (1 Peter 5:7). And please, call upon His name found at Psalm 83:18.
