“ Ryan and Killian, I am praying for both of you as you go through this very hard time in life's journey. Words cannot express the sorrow I feel right now for your loss. Remember, first, that God loves you, and that I love you as do a host of other Christian brothers and sisters. Always dear to me are you, Ryan. Jane

“ Dear Ryan and family,
My deepest sympathies to you and your amazing son. It was an absolute honor to know Erin. I am one of the long-distant cyber group friends she had over the past decade! There are a lot of us that knew Erin from afar and I know I speak for all of us when I say, she was a true and humble person, kind, loving and fun! I know she was an amazing mother and wife and her legacy lives on through all of us. We know she is out there watching, loving and caring for all of us as she did for so long. She will be sorely missed, but not EVER forgotten. I feel so very proud to have known her. My love to all of you.

God bless Mary Wong and family

“ Erin,
You were a beautiful person, a wonderful friend, & such a good mother to KT. I know how very much you love & wanted him & how proud you were of him. Every time I think of you I smile. I can hear your laugh in my head & know that you are brightening Heaven with it now. I can just imagine you up there dancing. Save me a spot next to you.
I love & miss you always,
Haley

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to Ryan, Kilbo, and the entire family. We are all heartbroken over the loss of a truly amazing mother, wife, daughter, aunt, and friend. I have never met an individual who had so much love to give and had the amazing ability to give so much of herself to so many others. She was always a cheerleader for others! Erin will greatly be missed by so so many. With her ginormous personality and heartwarming smile, there is no doubt in my mind that Erin has already, and will continue to wrap her arms around her family and find ways to guide them. Rest easy my sweet and adorable friend. We will meet one day!

“ Ryan, Ricky, Amy and the rest of Erin's family. I am saddened by the news that Erin is no longer there with you. Please seek not to understand the why but to embrace the time that you had with Erin. Take time out to grieve and mourn. Shed the tears. Share the stories. Sit and remember Erin's life. Learn from her life. Learn from the things Erin did right as a mother, as a friend, as a wife, as a daughter, and as a sister. Learn also from her mistakes. Repeat those things that were right and flee those things that were mistakes. Most importantly take the pain you are feeling to our creator and express your hurt, frustration, and disappointment to HIM. Lay those things on HIM and let HIM help you bear the load. Look to HIM for comfort. Embrace HIS love for you. Ben & Dana Gipson (Kathy's younger Brother)

“ To Erin, My heart is just broken over the fact that I'll never get to meet you in person. We formed our friendship on an internet chat group and I will always consider you one of my very best friends. And looking at this webpage...I just remembered that we not only shared the most fabulous birthday, but the same middle name-spelled correctly. I'll love you forever and I will think of you first every June 17th.

Ryan & Kilbo, I can't imagine what you guys are going through and I hope that I can give you both a hug one day. I love your whole little family. You know where to find all of Erin's online friends. I hope you check in frequently with us as we considered Erin a part of our nationwide/worldwide family.

Much Love, Carla
