

ETHEL LEE SWINDLE

November 2, 2024

Ethel Lee Swindle, affectionately known as Dilly, passed away on November 2, 2024, at her home in Adger, Alabama, at the age of 74. She was a beloved wife, sister, aunt, and friend, leaving behind a legacy of love and warmth.

Dilly was preceded in death by her parents, William Terrell Parsons and Ethel McGown Parsons, as well as her brothers: Charles, Bob, R.M., Huett, Ted, Barry, Davis, and Dan Parsons, and her sisters, Faye Dial and Flossie Parsons.

She is survived by her devoted husband, Jerry M. Swindle, and her siblings: Larry (Retta) and Ricky (Melodie) Parsons, Annette Carlyle, Alice Passontto, and Lou Drummonds, and a host of nephews, great nephews, and nieces, great nieces. Dilly's family was her pride and joy, and she cherished the moments spent with them throughout her life.

A graveside service will be held in her honor on Tuesday, November 5, 2024, at 11:00 AM Adger Cemetery in Adger, AL. All who knew Dilly are invited to join in remembering her life and the love she shared.

Dilly will be deeply missed but forever remembered for her kindness, strength, and the joy she brought to those around her.

*I have only recently learned of Dilly's passing, so many years ago.
Dilly I worked together for many years at Bessemer Carraway Medical Center.
Her department was always in her very capable hands. She was always admired and respected by her employees. My memories of Dilly are with fondness and admiration for such a good and faithful person.*

*I wish I had told her these things.
