

ETTA BELLE GILMORE

November 21, 2010

GILMORE, ETTA BELLE Etta Belle Gilmore, 91, of Sylvan Springs, AL, passed away Sunday, November 21, 2010. She had been a resident of Ridgeview Nursing Home, Jasper, AL, for the past four years with Alzheimer's. She was preceded in death by her husband of 58 years, Woodrow Wilson Gilmore. She is survived by her daughter, Earnestine (Terry) Ingram; her son, Woodrow M. (Cindy) Gilmore; five grandchildren, Wayne (Pam) Ingram, Lynn South, David (Donna) Ingram, Wanda (Raymond) Genovese, Christy Gilmore; nine great-grandchildren; three sisters, Bernice Baker, Jenny (Bill) Mullins, Betty Blackerby; one sister-in-law, Gertrude Gilmore; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was a member of Peoples Church, Hueytown, AL, where she loved her Sunday School Teachers, Geneva Vincent and Helen Sprunger; and was known for years as the "Avon Lady" in Sylvan Springs. She was devout Christian lady, a beacon and stronghold to her family, all of who will miss her dearly. Funeral services will be Wednesday, November 24, 2010, 2:00 with visitation at 1:00, Peoples Funeral Home, Hueytown, AL, Bro. Buddy Poe, Pastor Peoples Church presiding. Pallbearers: Wayne Ingram, David Ingram, Raymond Genovese, D. J. Sellers, Milton "Bunky" Baker, George "Buddy" Baker. Burial will follow at Highland Memorial Gardens, Bessemer, AL.