“ Doris, Paul, spouses, grandchildren and families. We extend our deepest heartfelt sympathies to all of you at this very trying time in your life. We know that the lose of a loved one grows heavily on your hearts, but as time goes the knowledge of them being at peace and with other dear family members in heaven will comfort us. Know that life does not go on but memories last forever. May God bless you all for the days to come and keep you remembering the good times with your dad, grandfather, or great-grandfather. Your friends from Indiana. Ron and family
