“ Sweet memories from our visit a few years ago. Aunt Eva Mae was a sweet soul and I will always treasure her memory. I hope my daughter who has her name will follow in her loving footsteps.

I remember beautiful Eva Mims at Brighton Baptist Church when we were all young. She was so beautiful, and I remember she and Lawrence bringing baby Lynn to church all dressed in white Batiste handmade dresses. My girls also wore the batiste handmade dresses and gowns. The last time I priced some for granddaughters, the infant dresses were going for $75 a piece. Just very pleasant memories. Later Lynn worked for Liberty National Life Insurance and so did the twins. I retired from Torchmark Corporation which was LNL's holding company. All great years. I am so sorry for the family's loss of Eva here on earth, but they will see her again in the bye and bye.
