

EVELYN RAPPE HOWELL

February 7, 2014

Evelyn Rappe Howell, 91, went home to be with her Lord on February 7, 2014. A long-time resident of Bessemer and Pleasant Grove, she was currently living at Cook Springs. She was a member of Bethel Baptist Church in Pleasant Grove and a former member of South Highlands Baptist in Bessemer. She was born and grew up in Charlotte, NC. Evelyn was preceded in death by her husband Quinton Howell, her parents Luther and Elizabeth Rappe, and two brothers L. J. and Billy Rappe. She is survived by three sons, Ronny (Faye), Tony (Sonja) and Bobby; three grandsons, Chris (Leigha), Brad, and Gil Howell (Lindsey); three granddaughters Holly (Billy) Pharis, Autumn Howell, and Emmie (David) Arendall; seven great grandchildren, Will and Carter Pharis, Emily, Cole and Ben Howell, Jackson and Reese Howell. She also leaves behind many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Visitation will be held Tuesday, February 11, 2014 at Peoples Chapel Funeral Home from 10:00 until 11:00 AM. The funeral service will be at 11:00 AM at the Funeral Home. Burial will follow at Highland Memorial Gardens for family only.

Tribute Wall

TF

“ It is with great sadness that we received the news of Evelyn's passing. As her family and friends knew, she was a beautiful, funny and wonderful mother, wife, grandmother, friend.... Our family's thoughts and prayers are with the family as you celebrate her life. I know she has happily entered into God's heavenly home and is smiling down on all. Grace and peace, Tommy

Tommy Carlisle & family - February 10, 2014 at 01:30 PM