He is survived by his spouse, Billie Childers; children Paul Childers (Stephanie), Cathy Roelofs (Russell), Casey Childers (Andrea), Keith Ellis and Amy Lunceford (Albert), grandchildren Danielle Roelofs, Jessica Bynum, Cameron Ellis, Jamie Bynum, Gabrielle Roelofs, Devon Ellis, Sarah Childers, Mason Roelofs, Christina Swindle, Ethan Childers, Norah Childers, Coleman Lunceford, Eli Roelofs and Olin Childers, siblings Mike Childers, David Childers (Teresa), Tim Childers (Cheryl), Cindy Walden and Cecilia King (Greg), 13 nieces and nephews, and 20 grand nieces and nephews.

Achievements: Retired from ATT, he was a telephone pioneer. There was nothing he could not achieve as he very frequently did. Fred had a thirst for knowledge and was not satisfied unless he learned something new every day. If anyone had a problem with their car or house, he would make it his mission to fix it. His greatest fulfillment was in knowing his kids were alright, doing well and that he had raised them right. He loved his grandchildren and would spend countless hours teaching them. Fred was an accomplished storyteller. He was a mentor to many and drew family unto himself of the many who found their way into his life. Fred was the Patriarch of not just his family but the whole family and prepared the way for us to follow. We his children honor him for the Legacy he leaves of self reliance and doing for ourselves and others. Visitation will be Friday, January 10, 2014 at Peoples Chapel Funeral Home from 11:30 AM until 2:00 PM. The funeral service will be at 2:00 PM at the Funeral Home. Burial will be at Highland Memorial Gardens.

“ Fred was a member of my group at the Birmingham office. We shared a long association, and I will always have memories of that time.
