“ So many lovely memories of my sweet Aunt Gaila! I will always remember her kindness when Grandma Ella May Rusby passed. My sister Terri-Sue wanted just one tiny glass jelly jar from Grandmas refrigerator as it was very special to Terri-Sue. Aunt Gaila snuck it out of the fridge and wrapped it up for her with no one the wiser. We promised this story would never come out but now dear Aunt Gaila I hope you and Terri-Sue are having a giggle together in Heaven. I love you Linda, Sharon, Teddy and families. Hope sharing the kindness your Momma showed to your cousin Terri-Sue gives you a bit of a smile during this difficult time. ❤️🙏

“ Gaila and I had so many fun times and trips together — loved our trips to Mississippi, to Auburn, to New York City, and especially to our favorite place - the beach. I loved Gaila and miss her terribly.
