“ I don't just have one memory of this sweet friend of mine. I have tons from working with him for over 2 years. I guess my most memorable one would be him stopping at the coffee shop to see me in the afternoons sometimes after he moved to 3rd shift. He even checked the air in my tires once and then asked me for my keys and he took my car to a machine and aired up all four tires. He said that it was a small favor in return for all the “cooking” I shared with him. He said that he thought of me every time he stopped somewhere to get something to eat and saw cake or cookies because he said he wouldn't buy any because mine was better. He was just an ole country fella who stayed to himself even though he talked to me a lot. We talked about books and music a lot. I have prayed for him daily for months now. My heart is broken, but I know he's no longer struggling and is at peace. I love you always “sweet baby”.

Man I almost didn't recognize Galen in these photos because he's been a whole lot smaller the whole time I've known him! He told me that he used to be a "big ole boy" that and his eyes and goatee (even being that short) give him away every time. I sure do miss my sweet friend, he was something special for sure. I'll never forget him because he was an amazing friend to me! Prayers for his family at this terrible loss.
