“ Gerry and I worked together at St. Vincent's for many years. She was talented and smart, but most of all witty and fun to be around. I often think of her, and send my prayers to her family, whom she loved dearly.

“ I always appreciated having her in the bishop's office...a sense of logic and sanity. Always kind... Of course, a perfect secretary-she always knew more than she pretended not to know. She will be greatly missed by the pastors of this diocese.

“ Gerry was my buddy. Most people know her serious, professional side but I enjoyed her crazy sense of humor and her keen intelligence. I'll miss those fun times at the movies and her interesting perspectives of life. Her brightest smiles were when she talked about her grandchildren. She was so proud of them and I hope they will always know that. She was incredibly loyal to to our Bishops and she served the Church with love, respect, and grace. Goodbye Gerry. We love you. Al
