

GILL WARREN CLARK

April 27, 2017

Gill Warren Clark April 16, 1952 - April 27, 2017

Gill lost his battle to Lung cancer on Thursday, April 27, 2017 at home with his wife in Camden, SC. He was born in Meridian, MS, but raised in Hueytown from the age of 3. Gill was a graduate of Hueytown High School class of 1970. He had a huge personality and never met a stranger. He loved cooking, camping, football, family and friends.

Gill has joined his parents James and Jean Clark in heaven, and is survived by his wife Carla "Robin" Clark of 19 1/2 years; daughters Aimee Watson (Frank), Leann Earnest, Haley Taylor, Linsey Lawson, and Jamie Harris; 8 grandchildren; sister Penny Allison (Eddie), and 3 nephews.

The visitation will be Saturday, May 6, 2017, from 1:00 PM until 2:00 PM, at Peoples Chapel Funeral Home. The memorial service will be Saturday, at 2:00 PM at the Funeral Home.

“ Robin, we are praying for you and your family. I can't imagine your pain and loneliness. Gill was such a fun lovin guy with something going on all the time. We had some fun times at Deerlick and we will never forget the meals he prepared for everyone. We love you and will continue to pray for you.

“ Gill (Nubbie) you are one of a kind. Now you and John McKay can be together again, best friends forever. You will be missed by all who knew you. God be with you on your journey. I remember hearing of all of the things you two got into. Go sit with him, hug him for me, tell him I still miss and love him.

“ A good friend like Gill is very hard to find. I met Gill while Camping at Deerlick Creek in Alabama. He was an outstanding chef, a talent which (as anyone who knows him) was dwarfed by his exceptional hospitality. He was a man that touched so many in positive ways and will be missed by us all. To Robin and all his loved ones, I offer my thoughts, prayers and well-wishes during this time in your lives.
