“ Dearest Michelle and Family, I was so saddened to hear of your dad's passing. I have such fond memories of him in my heart. Your family will always hold a very special place in my life. I will be much in prayer for each of you as you deal with this loss. I know it will not be an easy transition, but thank God he decided to accept Jesus and had a special home ready for him to go to in heaven. Remember, we who know Christ will all be reunited one day with those who have passed before us. I love you!
