“ Dear Sandy, We just want you to know how sorry we are about your father we know he was a good man and that he lived a good life. We always enjoyed listening to him tell his war stories he would be sitting on the back porch all the time when we would come pulling up. How he would stay in shape by walking back and forth in the drive way and we also know what a good daughter you were taking care of him and how much he loved going to Wal-Mart on Saturday morning. God Bless to you and your family as you go though these hard times now. We love You, Mark and Linda Lytle
